

PET ADOPTION APPLICATION

Primary adopter must be at least 21 years of age.

A non refundable adoption donation is required and a legally binding Adoption Agreement must be signed at the time of adoption. The adoption donation varies based on the type of animal and age. Adoption fees are not negotiable and are based on the fees of the cargo company transporting the animal. The fee must be paid prior to transportation.

All applicants are required to complete our application process. All applicants will be required to provide veterinary and personal references and must contact veterinary facilities to authorize release of their records to Cartagena Paws and/or Little One's Independent Rescue upon request within 24 hours of application submission.

Ownership of residence will be verified with city/town tax records, regardless is applicant owns or rents. If applicant rents their home they must verify they are permitted to own an animal and must provide landlords name and contact information on application. Cartagena Paws and/or Little One's Independent Rescue will contact the landlord and require written approval.

All applicants are subject to phone interviews, home visits, meet and greets with animal (including with any animal they may already have) and background checks.

Cartagena Paws and Little One's Independent Rescue are committed to the safety and well-being of all animals. All animals are up to date on vaccines and spayed/neutered prior to adoption. In the event there is a situation the animal is not spayed/neutered specific guidelines will be entered into contract NO exceptions will be made.

Cartagena Paws and Little One's Independent Rescue will hold superior title of ownership of any animal we placed in adoption. In the event the adopter cannot retain custody or the animal, the animal must be surrendered back to the rescue.

Our goal is to ensure the right animal is placed in the right home; Cartagena Paws and/or Little One's Independent Rescue reserves the right to approve or deny an application at our discretion.

By completing and submitting an Application for Adoption you acknowledge you have read and agree to Cartagena Paws and Little One's Independent Rescue's terms and conditions.
